Question for Reflection

Paul's claim about Christ Jesus in 1 Corinthians 15 is a creed: Christ died, was buried, was raised, and appeared to many disciples and finally to Paul, who writes, "by the grace of God I am what I am" (v. 10). If you were to say those words of yourself, what would it mean that everything about you—all you are and have done—is "by the grace of God"? Where is God's grace evident in your life today?

Morning Prayer

Heavenly God, our Father, I am full of thanks for a night of rest and for this new day and all that now awaits me. I go forward toward encounters with family and friends, work and play, and all that will bring me into contact with strangers, certain that you are with me. Lead and guide me in the way of a resurrected life. Help me to see the risen Lord today; in Jesus' name. Amen.

Evening Prayer

Holy God, our Mother, you are my comfort at the end as at the beginning of each day. You pull me toward the goodness you desire for me. I give you thanks for all that has come my way this day, and I ask your enveloping power to watch over me this night. Give rest to all your people. Wherever there is pain and struggle, may your holy angels bring peace; in Jesus' name. Amen.

Thank you for your help!

Thank you for your offering! Each time you make a contribution to Gobin Church, a portion of your gift will benefit the ministries of the global church, including Africa University in Mutare, Zimbabwe. Together, through our connected congregations of the United Methodist Church, we accomplish what no single church, district or annual conference ever could hope to do alone. We combine our prayers, presence, gifts and service to make a significant difference in the lives of all God's people.

The desire of Africa University's founders was to nurture an institution that would be deeply rooted in Africa—drawing its agenda and priorities from the challenges of African communities and combining the social wisdom and indigenous know-how of African people with new knowledge to aid development and improve quality of life on the continent.

When you give, you equip indigenous solution-finders who are tackling some of their continent's most pressing challenges with wisdom, innovation and spiritual maturity. Because of your generosity, The United Methodist Church is making a difference in Africa!

Thanksgiving and Communion

Thanksgiving after Communion

Triune God,
you have fed us with the body and blood of Christ,
uniting us with you,
filling us with power that raised Jesus from the dead.
Send us, rejoicing, to declare with Mary,
in hearts, and hands, and voices,
that day had dawned,
and we have seen the Risen Lord. Amen.

Moms of Gobin, We See You!

Raising kids is a joy, but it can also leave you feeling wiped out or lonely. We are interested in starting a weekly group for moms in May, and we want your input! The format would include some Bible study made especially for modern moms as well as fun and support. If you are interested, please contact the church office or Alisa Isaacs-Bailey at alisa@gobinumc.org. Let us know if you need childcare and what days and times would work best for you.

We'll take it from there!

Join Us Next Week for Our Life-Filled Series: Dare to Dance Again

"Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning."
– Psalm 30:5b

As Easter people, we are called to dance our dances of freedom for all the world to see. Dances of hope. Dances of justice. Dances of love. During this season, post-resurrection stories point to the joy of living in the beloved community and extending that fellowship through our witness as we dare to dance and "sing out strong!"
