This Week

Question for Reflection

Trinity Sunday is not so much a day for explanations as it is a day for reflection on the majesty and mystery of the fullness of God: God as Creator, Lawgiver, the One who performs mighty acts; God as Messiah and Lord, Savior, Liberator, known to us in Jesus Christ; God as Holy Spirit, Wind and Flame, Advocate, Comforter. How does thinking of God in this Trinitarian way inform, even increase, your understanding of God? Do you experience God, or relate more easily to God, in one of the three "Persons" of God more than the other two? What causes you to relate to God more closely in this way?

Morning Prayer

Creator God, I wake this morning to the beauty of the world as though it were the first morning of creation. As the light of the sun rises on all that you have made, I pray that my spirit may rise also. Help me to be ready to greet you however and in whomever you make yourself known to me today. Help me to pause in moments of this day to glimpse the beauty you have made, offered as gift and sign of your abiding presence. I entrust myself and those I love to you this day, knowing that you promise to be with us always. In your holy, triune name I pray. Amen.

Evening Prayer

O God, my Advocate and Comforter, I rest in you. The evening falls and the darkness does not overcome me, for you are my light. You are the Light of the world. I bring to you the passing cares of this day, and the deeper cares of my life and those I love. Breathe peace on all that stirs in me and whirls around me. Breathe peace into every troubled place and person this night. Shine on us, in us, and through us. I know that when I awake, I will still be with you, Holy One who is Source, Word, and Wisdom. Amen.

Meal Time Prayer

Giver of all good gifts, send your spirit to bless the food and drink at this table, and grant that we may be nourished abundantly with your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you for your help!

Your offering last week empowered ministry within our congregation and in response to the needs of our community. It also helped support global United Methodist initiatives in the focus on Abundant Health, such as the recent United Methodist Day of Health held in Dunwoody, GA. This event, sponsored by our Global Ministries agency in Atlanta, brought together clergy and laity from across the U.S. to share in their passion for spreading the word about health and wholeness for all Christ followers. Workshops provided training on varied topics from nutrition and exercise, and even included instruction on making your own hula hoop, and the benefits of this fun way of getting a workout. Other breakouts included HIV-Aids, accessibility of facilities, as well as physical, emotional and spiritual health and wholeness. This ministry happens, thanks to the way the people of The United Methodist Church live and give connectionally. I invite you to give generously as we worship God through sharing our gifts, tithes and offerings.

Our Mission:

To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our Vision:

To create a spiritual community that is full of life by honestly sharing our whole selves with one another in relationship.

We Gather

Welcome Rev. Bryan Langdoc
Prelude Steven Snyder, piano
Call to Worship Dick Shuck

One: God the Creator is in this place.
All: The love of god is with us.
One: Jesus our Redeemer is in this place.
All: The grace of our Lord is with us.
One: The Holy Spirit is in this place.
All: The communion of the Spirit is with us.
One: We welcome the fullness of God's presence.
All: God the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer be with us now and forever. Amen.

Opening Prayer Dick Shuck

All: Holy, Holy, Holy, Merciful, Eternal, and Mighty, by your grace you have shown us who you are, One in Three, and Three in One. We glorify you as Trinity, even as we worship you in your Unity. Open our hearts to receive your word to us today, that not only in our worship but in our lives we may serve and reflect you Triune Love all our days. Amen.

Opening Hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy" UMH 64

Invitation, Confession and Pardon Rev. Bryan Langdoc

One: Let us confess our sins to the One who gives life eternally.

All: Holy God, we know that you are always there to lead us, yet we somehow lose our way and fall back into fear. We confess that we have stumbled, and we recognize our need for you to lift us up and help up start again. Forgive us our failings, restore us to strength, and reconcile us with you, ourselves, and each other; through the power of Christ and the gift of your Spirit. Amen.

Come as a Child Tanis Monday

Sermon "Trinity Sunday" Rev. Judi Purvis

Confession of Faith Nicene Creed Rev. Bryan Langdoc

We believe in one God,

The Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord,

Jesus Christ, the one Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, True God from True God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through Him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary.

and became truly human.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in accordance with the scriptures;

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His Kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,

The Lord, the Giver of Life who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.
