Question for Reflection

When the woman who suffered a chronic and isolating ailment touched Jesus, he stated that the power had gone out from him. What aspects of your life and ministry empty you of power? How do you discern healthy limits and habits for the care of yourself and others? Which spiritual practices do you find most revitalizing when your energy reserves are depleted? In such times, how does your faith make you whole?

Morning Prayer

Good morning, God. Before this day takes hold of me and I am spread too thin by care, I come to you to sit quietly, for you are good to those who wait for you, to the soul that seeks your peace. Fill me with your life-giving presence; may all that I do this day be done with calm attention, for you are my strength and peace. Amen.

Evening Prayer

Thank you for helping me to become a more generous and attentive person this day. As I let go of all the things done and left undone this day, make me mindful that it is your strength and steadfast loving presence that keeps my faith whole and fills me with a quiet confidence. Amen.

Our keynote speaker will be Jim Ozier, ministry coach. Allison Curts, INUMC Associate Director of Mission and Justice Ministries, will be in the West District to present information on practical ways to love our neighbors. More details (including location) will be coming soon.

Thank you for your help!

Your offering last week empowered ministry within our congregation and in response to the needs of our community. It also helped support the growth of campus ministries through the Office of Collegiate Ministry at the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM). In April, these campus ministers came together for training on a new vision for growing and sustaining their ministries, led by celebrated author Eric Law. Participants in the four-day training session included members of the annual conference boards of higher education and campus ministry, collegiate ministers, and board members of collegiate ministry programs. This ministry happens, thanks to the way the people of The United Methodist Church live and give connectionally. I invite you to give generously as we worship God through sharing our gifts, tithes, and offerings.

Call to Worship Jeff Hansen

One: I wait for the Lord,
All: my soul waits, and in God's word I hope.
One: My soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning,
All: more than those who watch for the morning.
One: In faith, let us turn to our God, whose love is sure.

Opening Prayer Jeff Hansen

All: Holy Mystery, we know it takes little faith to see the sacred in the extraordinary. Yet you constantly remind us that sacred faith is in the ordinary, and it takes courage to believe the mundane can be enough. As we gather, teach us that grace can emerge even through the dull, the slightly disappointing, the not quite right, not quite as we intended, not really what we hoped; the clumsy, the awkward, and the imperfect. Help our act of faith be to accept who you are as enough for us. We gather now, as a small part of your larger church, praising the name of God our Creator, of Christ, our Savior, and the Holy Spirit, our Breath of Life. Amen.
