ANNOUNCEMENTS

Time to Order Your Christmas Wreath!

It's time to put your orders in for Christmas wreaths! Each wreath is $25, and the proceeds this year will go to the Bishop's Christmas Offering for Children. Place your order by November 11. You can fill out a form (on the fellowship table) and drop it in the offering or return it to the church office. Wreaths will be available for pick up at Gobin beginning Wednesday, November 28th. Payment is due upon receipt.

Red Wagon Food Brigade

We are still collecting food donations till Tuesday afternoon for Lilly's Red Wagon Food Brigade. On Tuesday, November 13th at 4:30 p.m. we invite the community - especially children - to help with the Red Wagon Food Brigade. Please bring your wagons, carts, baskets, bikes, or strollers to Gobin United Methodist Church. We will fill our wagons with donations, line-up, and begin the brigade to the Putnam County Food Pantry. Children will help stock the shelves that will benefit and feed our neighbors.

Thank you for your help!

Your offering last week empowered ministry within our congregation and in response to the needs of our community. It also supported the work of our Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR), working to help us all live in our multicultural world in a way that reflects the love of Christ. GCORR provides a variety of training opportunities across The United Methodist Church. One example is training for crossracial, crosscultural (CR/CC) appointments. "CR/CC appointments are made as a creative response to increasing racial and ethnic diversity in the church and its leadership. CR/CC appointments are appointments of clergypersons to congregations in which the majority of their constituencies are different from the clergyperson's own racial/ethnic and cultural background" (Book of Discipline 2016, para.425.4); This ministry happens, thanks to the way the people of The United Methodist Church live and give connectionally. I invite you to give generously as we worship God through sharing our gifts, tithes, and offerings.

We invite you to learn more about the work of the General Commission on Religion and Race at <http://www.gcorr.org>

We Gather

Welcome Rev. Bryan Langdoc

Prelude "Come As You Are"

Call to Worship Barbara Jackson

One: Our souls long for you, O God.

All: When shall we behold your face?

One: Our souls are uneasy.

All: When shall hope lead us to praise you again?

One: During the day, your steadfast love sustains us.

All: During the night, your song washes over us.

One: Our hope leads us to praise you.

All: We praise you, our song of hope.

Opening Prayer Barbara Jackson

All: Lord, we come to you to today with so many things on our hearts. You call us to be in relationship of trust and love with you and you offer healing to us for those portions of our lives that are broken and injured.

Help us to be open to your mercy and healing love.

For we ask this is Jesus' Name. AMEN.

Opening Hymn "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing" UMH 400

Invitation, Confession and Pardon Rev. Bryan Langdoc

One: Christ came into the world to save us from sin, once and for all. Because of his sacrifice for us God waits in mercy to forgive our sin before God and one another.

All: Lord of all, the nations are you.

The poor are your treasured ones —

widows, orphans, the aliens you protect.

Your justice reigns over all.

Forgive us when our ways devour your beloved.

We don't mean to cause harm, yet we do.

Forgive us when we consume more than our fair share, all the while knowing that our excesses deny the poor the things they need to live.

Forgive us for building bigger closets, and not clothing the naked.

Forgive us for vacationing in leisure, when multitudes long simply for rest.

Hear our prayer, Holy One.

May your justice and grace reign forever. Amen.

One: We long to mend our ways.

Christ can bear these sins for all who eagerly wait for him.

His sacrifice on our behalf, his grace toward us, washes us anew.
