This Week

Please consider using the following resources throughout the week ahead.

Question for Reflection

What does it mean to love God with all your heart, mind, and soul and to love your neighbor as yourself?
What can you do to watch out for the oppressed, the widows, the orphans, or people less fortunate?

Morning Prayer

Loving God,
help me to live by your commandments as I strive to love you and my neighbors with all I have. Amen.

Evening Prayer

Gracious Lord,
thank you for watching over me throughout the day.
Help me to meditate on your ways as I rest tonight.
In Jesus' name. Amen.

Meal Time Prayer

Bless, O Lord, This food to our use
And us to thy service,
And keep us ever mindful
Of the needs of others.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Freed Up Financial Living - week 2

November 10th, 9am-Noon @ Gobin Church

This short class pairs sound financial knowledge with biblical principles of money management, guiding participants to develop a personal spending plan that reflects both in a healthy, balanced way.

We will explore what the Bible and the culture say about the five financial areas of life (earning, giving, saving, debt and spending). Don't miss out on this opportunity! Email Jeff Hansen for details. jhansen4@mac.com

Thank you for your help!

Your offering last week empowered ministry within our congregation and in response to the needs of our community. It also supported the work of our Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR), working to help us all live in our multicultural world in a way that reflects the love of Christ. GCORR provides a variety of training opportunities across The United Methodist Church. One example is training for crossracial, crosscultural (CR/CC) appointments. "CR/CC appointments are made as a creative response to increasing racial and ethnic diversity in the church and its leadership. CR/CC appointments are appointments of clergypersons to congregations in which the majority of their constituencies are different from the clergyperson's own racial/ethnic and cultural background" (Book of Discipline 2016, para.425.4); This ministry happens, thanks to the way the people of The United Methodist Church live and give connectionally. I invite you to give generously as we worship God through sharing our gifts, tithes, and offerings.

We invite you to learn more about the work of the General Commission on Religion and Race at <http://www.gcorr.org>

"The Feast of All Saints"

Proper 26
November 4, 2018

We Gather

Welcome Rev. Bryan Langdoc
Prelude Veronica Pejril
Call to Worship Dan Miller

One: I looked over Jordan, that river we all will eventually cross...
All: O Lord, what a vision.
One: I could see the saints singing and dancing.
I saw Grandpa fishing in the Crystal Sea,
I heard Grandma humming in the kitchen...
All: O Lord, what a vision.
One: There were countless others, all faithful disciples, gathered worshipping...
That old man who sang solos in the choir,
That young man whose life was cut short in an accident...
All: O Lord, what a vision.
One: But the most amazing thing I saw as I looked over Jordan...
All: Yes? Yes?
One: Was the man standing in the shallows, smiling, saying
All: "Welcome home."

Opening Prayer Dan Miller

All: We give you thanks, O God, for all the saints who ever worshipped you Whether in brush arbors or cathedrals,
Weathered wooden churches or crumbling cement meeting houses
Where your name was lifted and adored.
We give you thanks, O God, for hands lifted in praise:
Manicured hands and hands stained with grease and soil,
strong hands and those gnarled with age
Holy hands
Used as wave offerings across the land.
We thank you, God, for hardworking saints;
Whether hard-hatted or steel-booted,
Head ragged or aproned,
Blue collared or three-piece-suited
They left their mark on the earth for you, for us, for our children to come.
Thank you, God, for the tremendous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us.
Bless the memories of your saints, God.
May we learn how to walk wisely from their examples of faith,
dedication, worship, and love.

Thanksgiving

Doxology UMH 95
Prayer of Thanksgiving
Invitation, Confession and Pardon Rev. Bryan Langdoc

One: Jesus, our great high priest, calls us to confess our sins, to receive forgiveness, and to be renewed for lives of freedom and joy.
All: Patient, Forgiving Spirit, we come seeking your face.
We hold on to ancient angers and hurts,
and refuse to believe that you alone can make all things new.
Like Mary and Martha, we have forgotten your promises of eternal life. Like the crowd that mourned for Lazarus, we have not believed that we would see your glory.
Forgive our unbelief, O God.
Bring us back, and restore our trust in you.
One: The Holy One shows us a vision of a new heaven and a new earth, where everyone will live in peace and blessing. Trusting in God's promise to wipe away all our tears, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.
All: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.
Glory to God. Amen.
