

Week 6: Questions for Discussion and Thought

Dr. Farley speaks of why she wrote this particular book now—her own need for more resilience in tough times. How has this theology of beauty helped to deepen your ability to deal with the difficult times we are in?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

As you look at the world, what “assaults on the beauty of beings” do you mourn? What unique thing are you feeling called to do as a result of being “awakened to beauty?”

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

What contemplative practices will you continue from this time in order to “keep your tank full” so that you may be engaged in the work of compassion and justice?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---